

Klove serves my community by reaching those who might not hear the word of God in another means. The effect on the local community would suffer without that avenue of people hearing the words that might change their lives. In this day and age where God and His word is being challenged in every venue, it's most important that Klove be allowed to continue broadcasting the word of God so others might come to know Him and receive His promise.